

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON College Library Services and Higher Education: In the Light of NAAC”

A One-Day Workshop on College Library Services and Higher Education: In the Light of NAAC was organised in the Seminar Hall of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya on January, 10th, 2019 from 11.30am onwards. The programme was graced by renowned librarian, Dr. Nimai Chand Saha, Deputy Librarian, Visva-Bharati, Shantiniketan. The Seminar opened with a speech by the Principal of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya, Dr. Santosh Koner, followed by the lighting of the lamp and the felicitation of the Resource Person.

Dr. Saha spoke extensively on library management and the need to equip the institutional library with all required facilities. He stressed on the fact the library is the backbone of any educational institution and the place of enrichment for both staff and students. He also emphasised on the need for library upgradation by employing the library software, increasing the number of books and journals every session, and enhancing modern facilities for the overall growth in the teaching-learning process.

The workshop was attended by more than 80 participants who felt highly motivated by the workshop and shared their feedback regarding the current institutional library. The students freely interacted with the Resource Person and a few suggestions were also given by the participants regarding ways to improve the college library.

The programme was concluded with a hearty Vote of Thanks by Ms. Aparajita Mukherjee, IQAC Co-Ordinator of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya.
