

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON
UTKARSHA BANGLA
A Student mobilisation camp

A One-Day Workshop on UTKARSHA BANGLA was organised in the Seminar Hall of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya on December 2nd, 2021 from 12 pm onwards as part of the Career Counselling programme. The programme was conducted by the office of the Patrasayer Municipal Block and was attended by Block official Sri Pallab Jash. The programme was primarily based on skill development and subsequent job opportunities, arranged by the collaborative efforts of the Block office and Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya to educate the young learners regarding the various job prospects after Govt. backed vocational training.

The workshop was attended by more around 80 participants including staff and students who were some hands-on training by the external expert. Mr. Jash also enlightened the students regarding the virtual app through which they may enrol themselves in various training programmes supported by the Govt. of West Bengal. He assured the students that after the pre-requisite training, their employability prospects will increase and they will have high chances of being recruited in diverse sectors. There is a wide range of training programmes among which the students may choose one / multiple as per their preference or skill set.

The students felt highly motivated after the workshop and proceeded to go clarify their various doubts regarding the job opportunities. Block official Sri Pallab Jash shared his contact details with the participants for any / all further queries regarding the training programme.

The programme was concluded with a hearty Vote of Thanks by Ms. Aparajita Mukherjee, IQAC Co-Ordinator of Patrasayer Mahavidyalaya.
